

Ben Kreider is a 2nd year M.Div. student at Princeton Theological Seminary. Ben has directed prison programs at a restorative justice nonprofit, worked in various Mennonite-affiliated spaces, and lately has been soaking up full-time student status. Originally from central Kansas he enjoys gardening, woodworking, food, soccer, the outdoors and life in central Jersey with his wife Alli (a fellow seminary student!).