

My name is Gregory Louis and I am in the second year of the Master of Divinity program at Princeton Theological Seminary. My research interests center around identifying overlap between the "spiritual" and the "secular." Seminary is my second or third career, I am a retired athlete and former educator. And I was raised by Haitian immigrants in West Palm Beach, FL.