

Israel Galindo

Dr. Israel Galindo is Associate Dean for Lifelong Learning at the Columbia Theological Seminary. He directs the Pastoral Excellence Programs of the Center for Lifelong Learning at Columbia seminary. He is the author of numerous books, including Academic Leadership: Practical Wisdom for Deans and Administrators (Didache Press), and the bestseller, The Hidden Lives of Congregations (Rowman & Littlefield). Among his other books are Perspectives on Congregational Leadership (Educational Consultants), Leadership in Ministry: Bowen Theory in the Congregational Context (Didache Press) and Mastering the Art of Instruction (Didache Press). Dr. Galindo is a consultant to theological schools for the Wabash Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology and Religion and is a regular contributor to their blogs.