

Linda Kwak is a Korean American from Orange County, California who is currently a second-year M.Div. student at Princeton Theological Seminary. Linda is pursuing ordination with the PC(USA) denomination and she hopes to be able to utilize her interests in Christian Education, Ethics, Philosophy, and Theology within congregational contexts in the future. In her free time, she enjoys watching movies, playing video games, and trying out interesting food establishments.