

Terri Elton

Dr. Terri Martinson Elton is Professor of Leadership at Luther Seminary, St. Paul, MN. Her research and teaching focus on a missional approach to congregational leadership and faith formation. Her writing latest includes: Journeying in the Wilderness: Forming Faith in the 21st Century, Leading Congregations and Nonprofits in a Connected World: Platforms, People, and Purpose, (a book she co-authored with Rabbi Hayim Herring), and Cultivating Teen Faith: Insights from The Confirmation Project, (a book on findings from The Confirmation Project research). Prior to teaching, Terri served for twenty years in a congregation (Prince of Peace Lutheran Church, Burnsville, MN) and as an assistant to the bishop (Saint Paul Area Synod). She is married to Eric, and they have two young adult daughters, Jordan and Elizabeth. For more see her website: terrielton.com.